Community Responds To Word of Righteousness Family Life Center Request For Support

GARFIELD HEIGHTS (September 29, 2008) Word of Righteousness Family Life Center serves the community by providing free food to those in need. When it experienced a sudden increase in demand and marked decrease in financial support, the center realized it would need the help of the community to continue these charitable works. The Neighborhood News published a front page article entitled, “Public support sought in efforts to feed community” on September 3, 2008. In response to the informative article, written by Amber Weisbarth, the community has begun to offer its support.

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center would like to extend its sincere thanks to Mrs. Joanne Cash of Maple Heights for her generous donation, and to Preformed Line Products Company of Cleveland (Mayfield Village) for its matching corporate contribution. Additionally, the center is very grateful to the Neighborhood News for going above and beyond the call of duty to ensure that its readers are informed of the benefits, issues and events that impact the community.

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center would like to invite other individuals and companies to join them in their fight against hunger by making a tax deductible contribution as well. Contributors should make checks payable to WORFLC Community Outreach Fund and mail to P.O. Box 25584, Garfield Heights, Ohio 44125. A receipt of your charitable donation will be provided by the center, which is a tax-exempt non-profit organization under Section 501(c)(3).
