Word of Righteousness Family Life Center Distributes Food at New Location

WHAT: The monthly food distribution provided by Word of Righteousness Family Life Center will still occur on Saturday, July 5th from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM, at the regularly scheduled date and time. However, it will now take place at the Garfield Heights Community Center, instead of the previous location at Garfield Mall.

Those who wish to receive free food must call 216-373-7885 ext. 211 to ensure adequate supply is available. Those who wish to support the Center's effort to feed the hungry are invited to volunteer and/or make a tax-deductible contribution. Additional information may be obtained by: phone at 216-373-7885 ext. 211; e-mail to community@worflc.org; or internet at www.worflc.org.

WHY: Word of Righteousness Family Life Center realizes that the present economy has left many individuals with an inadequate supply of food. Though the church is no longer located at Garfield Mall, it will continue to serve the needs of the community at the Garfield Heights Community Center. Additionally, though the distribution is scheduled to occur during a holiday weekend, the church is committed to meeting the needs of the people and therefore will be providing the food as scheduled at this new location.

A primary objective of Word of Righteousness Family Life Center is to serve the needs of the hungry, thirsty, homeless, naked, sick and imprisoned. To this end, the ministry offers various programs designed to meet both the spiritual and natural needs of the community.
