Food and clothing available to impoverished residents at Garfield Mall church

GARFIELD HEIGHTS (January 21, 2008) — Persons in need that reside in Garfield Heights and surrounding suburbs (including Bedford, Maple Heights, Warrensville Heights, Independence and part of Cleveland) may go to the Food and Clothing Distribution Center (the "Center") on March 1, 2008, (as well as the first Saturday of each subsequent month), from 12 pm to 2 pm at Word of Righteousness Family Life Center (www.worflc.org), located at 12680 Rockside Road, Garfield Heights, Ohio in Garfield Mall (formerly Garfield Mall Movies).

The Center offers food and clothing to those in need. It primarily serves persons living in the following zip codes: 44125, 44146, 44137, 44128 and 44131. The Center's objective is to serve the needy with love and compassion while maintaining the recipient's dignity and respect. To this end the Center is a 'client choice' facility, which allows the clients to choose their own food and clothing, as opposed to having it selected and bagged for them.

The Center is a member agency of the Cleveland Foodbank and is listed with 2-1-1, First Call for Help, a program of United Way of Greater Cleveland. Those who wish to receive free food or clothing must call 216-373-7885 ext. 211 to ensure adequate supply is available. Those who wish to support the Center's effort to feed the hungry and clothe the naked are invited to volunteer and/or make a tax-deductible contribution. Additional information may be obtained by: phone at 216-373-7885 ext. 211; e-mail to community@worflc.org; or internet at: www.worflc.org.
