

WORFLC seeks donations for Thanksgiving turkey distribution

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center in Garfield Heights will host its second annual Turkey Distribution on Saturday, Nov. 14.

Families in need from the south-east Cleveland area will be able to come and get a free turkey for their Thanksgiving dinner. Last year WORFLC served over 177 turkeys and hams. This year, since the need for county food assistance has increased by 17 percent in this area, the need will be even greater.

Donations are needed to ensure every person who needs one will have a turkey this Thanksgiving. WORFLC is asking residents to skip their morning stop at the coffeehouse for one day and make sure a family has a turkey. Pack a lunch for one day instead of buying it and three families can be fed. Rent a movie and eat microwave popcorn instead of going to a theater and feed twelve families.

Donating is easy — you can give online at www.worflc.org or stop at any US Bank and make a contribution. Your donation can help create a wonderful memory of a holiday for a family who might not otherwise have the chance to enjoy this festive occasion.
