

Feed a family this Thanksgiving

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center, a faith-based, non-profit organization in Garfield Heights, is seeking help to provide families in need with dinner for the Thanksgiving holiday.

"Many individuals specifically asked whether they could come back again to receive food for Thanksgiving after our November 1st regular distribution," stated Dr. Alicia M. Lytle, the center's executive director.

"Because our agency is a member of the Cleveland Foodbank, we can purchase food for these families at a reduced cost," she said.

"For instance, with a $5 donation, we can provide a 10 to 12 pound turkey, a box of stuffing mix, a box of macaroni and cheese, a can of yams and a can of cranberry sauce. With a $100 donation, we can provide that dinner for 24 households," she continued.

The center is asking for contributions to make a Thanksgiving distribution available to families in need.

It has distributed more than 16,730 pounds of food to families in Garfield Heights and the surrounding area this year, according to Lytle.

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center serves the community at the Garfield Heights Community Center, 13455 Dressler Ave., on the first Saturday of each month from noon to 2 p.m. Eligibility guidelines for the free food are available on the agency's website at www.worflc.org/services.htm.

Those wishing to make a tax-deductible contribution to the center can do so online at www.worflc.org/donations.htm or can send checks payable to W.O.R.F.L.C. to Word of Righteousness Family Life Center, Community Outreach Fund, P.O. Box 25584, Garfield Hts., 44125.

Clients needing to receive meals will be informed through the website and local media of the date, time and procedure for the special distribution, once the number of available meals has been determined.
