

Coat exchange, free food distribution set for Saturday at G.H. Community Ctr.

Word of Righteousness Family Life Center, a faith-based non-profit organization, will coordinate the "Great Exchange" of coats this Saturday, Dec. 6, from noon to 2 p.m. at the Garfield Heights Community Center, 18455 Dressler Ave., as well as distribute free food to those in need.

Bring your outgrown coat in adult, children's or infants' sizes, in a gently worn and clean condition and exchange it for another preowned coat that fits, although size availability cannot be guaranteed.

Those who wish to donate coats without exchange are also invited to do so. A special thanks to the Warner-Turney Neighborhood Organization for donating more than 30 coats.

The free food distribution will also be held this Saturday from noon to 2 p.m. at the Center.

Clients must meet income eligibility guidelines, which are posted on the Center's website, and live in the 44125, 44105,

Meth lab

discovered on 44146, 44137, 44128 or 44131 zip codes.

New clients will be served at 1 p.m., provided supply is still available. Telephone registrations are not accepted and phone calls cannot be returned.

For more information, visit the website: <http://www.worflc.org>.

N.N. will pr to Santa from